

Only One Will Do

Joni Schneider
Friday February 26, 2016
DERR 113
12:00pm–1:00pm

Abstract

The Fold-and-Cut Theorem states that any shape with straight sides can be cut from a single (idealized) sheet of paper by folding it flat and making a single straight complete cut. During this presentation we will discuss the history of this problem as well as discuss ideas on how to solve this problem.